 PRESS RELEASE *****

August 7, 2014

The Village of Glenwillow is pleased to announce that Core-Mark Holding Company has leased the building at 30300 Emerald Valley Parkway for 15 years and Village Council approved a Job Creation Tax Credit Agreement at its Council meeting last evening.

The JCTC Agreement provides that in exchange for 150 full-time permanent new jobs to the Village, the company will receive a rebate of the income taxes that will be paid to the Village. We also worked with the state of Ohio and JobsOHIO to secure additional incentives for the company through their programs.

Core-Mark Holding Company headquartered in San Francisco, California will be establishing a distribution center that will service its customers in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Core-Mark is one of the largest marketers of fresh and broad-line supply solutions to the convenience retail industry in North America. Founded in 1888, Core-Mark offers a full range of products, marketing programs and technology solutions to over 30,000 customer locations in the U.S. and Canada through 28 distribution centers (excluding two distribution facilities the Company operates as a third party logistics provider). Core-Mark services traditional convenience retailers, grocers, drug, liquor and specialty stores, and other stores that carry convenience products.
